MALAYAN CITY IN COLORFUL WELCOME TO BRITISH HEIR

Kuala Lumpur Puts On Magnificent Spectacle

TORCH PARADES

Chinese Residents Participate In Festivities

(Reuter's Service)

Kuala Lumpur, March 28.—Malaya clearly has but one thought today and that is to make gala in honor of the Prince of Wales. What though the gigantic rubber forests are pouring forth upon an idle market or that tin is only mentioned as a mournful reminiscence? These are the troubles of yesterday and of tomorrow. Today the preoccupation is the Prince.

Kuala Lumpur of course broke loose in contagious loyalty at six o'clock last night when the Prince of Wales motored into her radiant heart. At ten o'clock the Chinese, forming half of the population, treated the Prince to a torchlight procession two miles long, which he witnessed from the illuminated verandah of the Selangor Club.

Many wonderous devices moved slowly past to monotonous music in which clashing cymbals dominated. These included miniature joss-houses, tiny ten pavilions occupied by smiling damsels and groups of animal representatives, amongst which was a dragon 200 feet long, its transparent interior ablaze with Chinese lanterns.

BLAZE OF COLOR

Every type and age stalked along in vivid-colored national colors, all bearing aloft white silken transparencies, with messages of welcome illuminated from within, or immense banners poised on lofty bamboos by single staggering men.

The background of variegated festoons and the illuminations of the streets greatly enhanced the fantastic picture.

But much more wonderful than the spectacle itself was the warmth of the loyalty expressed. The Chinese is not much given to demonstration but he showed a remarkable understanding of the art of cheering on this occasion.

Boys and girls from the schools, marshalled by long-robed teachers, sang quaint songs of welcome, which had been specially composed. Grave-looking elders in gaudy canopied cars kowtowed profoundly on passing the Prince who stood half an hour watching the fascinating pageant and then returned to the ball-room of the Selangor Club.

This morning Kuala Lumpur has extended a public welcome to the Prince of Wales, an address being presented in behalf of all races and communities of the Federated Malay States.

For the past 24 hours the inhabitants of remote districts have been flowing into the capital. The result is a crowd of 25,000, about half of which are Malayans, assembled upon a richly-decorated padang, beautiful with its lofty background of tropical foliage.

The triumphal arches erected along the Jalan Raja claimed special interest, that put up by the Sultan of Perak being of gold repousee topped by two huge green dragons. The Arch of Negri Sembilan is supported amidst dense palm leaves by representatives of all the Malay States, with four Jakim tribesmen perched at the top to represent their custom of tree-dwelling.

The bodyguards of Their Malay Highnesses were wildly quaint in their barbaric attire, armed with their original weapons.

The Prince and the High Commissioner took their seats in the Sultans' Bulen or reception pavilion. With them were the rulers of the Federated States.

The usual ceremonies of presentation over, the Prince proceeded slowly through a long lane formed by cadets, scouts and guides to the Royal Dais, when the Hon. Mr. Kenion read an address to which His Royal Highness replied. The whole ceremony occupied 45 minutes.

When the Prince left the padang to return to Government House, the great colored sea of humanity roared itself hoarse.

The weather is intensely hot, with great golden clouds sailing slowly across from the mile-

TAYLOR FREED BY BANDIT GANG NEAR YUNNANFU

Missionary Safe Is Word Received By Offices In Shanghai

Dr. F. Howard Taylor, who with Mrs. Taylor was captured by Yunnan brigands several weeks ago, has been released and reached Yunnanfu safely on March 28, according to a telegram received by the China Inland Mission yesterday. Mrs. Taylor was released by the bandits shortly after she and her husband were taken captive and returned to Yunnanfu, but her husband was held. Relief expeditions were started out and the legations were bringing pressure to bear in Peking but considerable apprehension for Dr. Taylor's safety were entertained.

The message received yesterday gave no details of Dr. Taylor's release but it is presumed that further particulars will be received at the Mission headquarters here today or tomorrow.

WORLD'S HOPE IN ANGLO-AMERICAN UNITY, SAYS MOTT

Religious Leader Addresses Peking Association

BY JOSEF W. HALL
Staff Correspondent of the China Press

Peking, March 30.—Mr. John R. Mott, addressing the Anglo-American Association, warned against insidious influences that were fostering misunderstandings between the two great English speaking nations whose idealistic unity alone assures the prosperity of the world.

He said that in this regard the Washington Conference was a great success, since it created the opportunity for Anglo-American unity without at the same time arousing the suspicions or jealousy of other nations. By this unity, he said, China will be greatly benefited and should be able to round the corner of her difficulties in ten years.

Mr. Mott, who was a member of the Root commission to Russia, candidly admitted that he did not understand the great Slav nation, but he believed Roosevelt's prediction that true world development depended upon Russia was coming true.

Rival Factions Sit In First Parley At London

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29.—A large party of armed men in Dublin today evicted the staff of the Freemans Journal, smashed up the machinery, scattered petrol and set fire to the building.

Later: Prompt action on the part of the Fire Brigade suppressed the flames and saved the building.

The pillagers overlooked a large new printing machine but pickaxed portraits of Mr. Griffith and Mr. Collins.

The Executive Council appointed by the Irish Republican Army Convention at Dublin has issued an order deposing the Dail Eireann Minister of Defence, Mr. Mulchy, from control of the Army. This is tantamount to a declaration of war on the Provisional Government.

In reply Commandant O'Duffy, the Free State Chief of Staff, has issued a manifesto relieving all officers and men from the responsibility of obeying the orders of any superior officer who has severed connection with the Irish Republican Army by attending the Dublin Conference.

Waterworks Company Puts Blame On Council For Extension Delays

Chairman At Annual Meeting Outlines Proposals Made By Directors And Says Municipality Has Failed To Respond

Explanation of the Municipal Council for delay occasioned in extension of the Shanghai water supply is contained in the speech of the chairman at the annual general meeting of the Shanghai Waterworks Company, Ltd., held yesterday afternoon at the company's Kiangse Road offices.

This is the fourth year, Mr. L. J. Cubitt, the chairman, pointed out that he has had to refer to this matter as being in abeyance. No effective measures had been taken by the Council to deal with the question, in spite of repeated application by the company, and the directors of the Waterworks, he declared, could not in any way be held to account for the delay.

Supporting Mr. Cubitt at the meeting were Mr. A. W. Burkill, Mr. C. G. S. Mackie and Mr. H. M. Little, directors, Mr. F. B. Pitcairn, Engineer-in-Chief and manager, and Mr. W. R. Walter, secretary, while the shares represented totaled 11,167. The chairman's address was as follows:

"Gentlemen: I had hoped to welcome you this year in the company's new headquarters across the way but although very good progress has been made with the building it will not be ready for occupation until three months hence.

"The Report and Accounts for the year ended December 31, 1921 have been in your possession for a week and I propose to take them as read. They are the least satisfactory from a financial point of view that I have had to lay before you since I have been connected with the company, as in spite of an increase of just over 20 percent in the quantity of water delivered to consumers the net profit for the year is only Tls. 275,465.90 (including a profit of over Tls. 24,000 on the sale of War Loan) against Tls. 371,865.47, a decrease of Tls. 96,399.57 or 25.9 percent. We are thus unable to maintain the usual rate of dividend and but for the assistance of the equalisation of dividend fund we should not be in a position to pay even the small return which I am about to recommend. The revenue it is true is more than last year by Tls. 117,558.66, or about 12 percent but against this the expenditure shows an increase of Tls. 104,687.64, leaving the Working Profit benefited to the extent of Tls. 12,871.02 only while items chargeable to Profit and Loss account have increased from Tls. 127,719.61 to Tls. 263,016.37, due chiefly to additional interest and provision of Tls. 40,727.27 for corporation profits tax—a charge which appears for the first time.

WANT MORE REVENUE

"Taking the Working account charges and the Profit and Loss account charges together for 1921 and comparing them with the figures for 1920 you will find that the increase in revenue and as the charges are practically all recurring it is evident that a stage has been reached when it is imperative that the company should without further delay be placed in a position to collect revenue on a more adequate scale than is provided for under the existing agreement with the Council. It is sometimes suggested that the company should have no cause for complaint in view of the increase in house rentals upon which domestic water charges are based; I would point out in reply that the Council in addition to the increased revenue it derives from land tax and other sources, has found it necessary since 1905 to raise municipal rates on such house rentals from 10 percent to 14 percent. I shall refer again to the negotiations for the modification of the existing agreement with the Council before concluding my remarks on the activities of the year.

"In 1920 the return to shareholders was £2.12 or Tls. 14.24 per share at a cost to the company of Tls. 362,977.60. The return for 1921 is £2 or Tls. 11.73 per share at a cost to the company of Tls. 393,482.64, the increased cost of the reduced dividend being partly due to less favorable exchange and partly to the increased number of shares. Of the issue of 13,160 new shares at £25 per share, 3,689 shares were allotted on January 14, 1921 and the balance was offered at £25 per share plus interest at 7 percent per annum from January 1, 1921 to date of application, applications closing on March 31, by which date 473 further shares had been alloted, making a total of 4,162 shares.

"The extraordinary resolution altering the Articles of Association to enable bonus shares to be issued was passed at the extraordinary general meeting held on March 31, 1921 and confirmed at the extraordinary general meeting held on April 15, 1921. At the latter meeting an extraordinary resolution was also passed capitalising a portion of the Reserve Fund equivalent to the nominal sterling value of one-tenth of the total number of shares issued on the date of the resolution, i.e., 3,048 shares at £20 per share—£60,960, at exchange 3/2½—Tls. 380,010.39. Bonus shares were allotted accordingly and fractions were allotted to the Secretary and disposed of, the total proceeds being divided among the shareholders concerned.

"The premium on the issue of new shares was placed to Reserve Fund increasing it to Tls. 1,160,296.59 and the net amount of the Reserve Fund after capitalising the portion distributed in

SAD FELLOW TOURISTS AT FUNERAL OF MRS. SNYDER

U. S. And Japanese Officials Also Pay Tributes

INQUEST OPENS

Korean Slayers Arraigned In Consular Court

Members of the little group of American travelers who came more than half way around the world to have tragedy overtake them here followed the body of the companion they lost, Mrs. Grace Snyder, on its last journey yesterday to the chapel in Bubbling Well Cemetery.

Besides the members of the party, American and Japanese Consular officials, representatives of the municipal administration and many new-found and sympathetic friends of the sorrowing husband were present at the last rites for the victim who fell before the bullets of a crazed Korean seeking to assassinate General Baron Tanaka. The service was conducted by Dr. Luther Freeman, pastor of the Community Church.

Among those in the gathering in the chapel were Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General; Mr. Mahlon F. Perkins, American Executive Consul and Mrs. Perkins; Mr. Tatsuichiro Funatsu, Japanese Consul-General; Major Kobayashi, member of the staff of General Baron Tanawa; Inspectors T. Kerrigan, R. C. Aires, J. Dee and T. Crookdake, of the Shanghai Municipal Police; Mr. M. Yonosata, representing the Japanese Residents Corporation and members of the Shanghai Rotary Club. A particularly gracious note of sympathy was given expression in the presence at the chapel of five Japanese women, clad in full national mourning garb, who attended as members of the Japanese Women's Society.

SERVICES AT FOUR

Mrs. Snyder's body was taken from the Mortuary at the Shanghai General Hospital yesterday morning to the cemetery chapel and it was at four in the afternoon that the stricken husband and the friends with whom he has been traveling made their way to the hushed chapel.

Scores of floral offerings, the tribute of official and unofficial Shanghai banked the casket. The tense silence which recognised the greatest of griefs—tragedy forcing its way with pitiful suddenness into a ring of perfect happiness—cast its pall over the small congregation. In accordance with custom in cases where cremation is carried out, the many floral offerings when they are removed from the chapel, will be placed on the graves of American soldiers and sailors in the small plot at Bubbling Well devoted to them.

A short time before the funeral services were held, the two Korean slayers, "Au" and "Kim" were arraigned in the Japanese Consular Court before Japanese Inspector Kobayashi, acting as magistrate, to face the charge of murder, assault, and other violations of the Japanese criminal code which have been lodged against them.

INQUEST TESTIMONY

Chief Inspector T. I. Vaughan appeared for the Settlement Police. The testimony given at the inquest before U. S. Commissioner F. J. Schuhl on Wednesday by the police and members of the Raymond and Whitcomb tours party, of which Mr. and Mrs. Snyder were members, was reviewed. Further evidence in the preliminary hearing is to be taken in the Japanese Consular Court today.

The members of the party which Mr. and Mrs. Snyder had accompanied more than half-way around the world from their home in Brazil, Ind. are leaving today for Peking, and from there will go on to Japan as originally planned. Mr. Snyder has cancelled his plans for continuing the tour and will remain in Shanghai until April 9, when he will sail directly for America on the Admiral Liner Wenatchee.

Hope for the recovery of Mr. H. A. Thompson and the three Chinese who were likewise victims of the misdirected bullets of the assassins was held out by attending physicians last night. None of the four men is now in danger, the physicians said, and unless unforeseen complications develop, all should recover.

No new developments have occured in the case despite the fact that both the Municipal and French police are delving into the activities of the revolutionists in detail. Connection of the two Koreans with the gang of daylight bandits who swooped down on a wheelbarrow coolie on North Honan Road last Monday and killed him after an attempt to steal his load of silver dollars is still a possibility, but papers found among the other literature tend to back up their assertion that the number—321—was used in an athletic meet in the North. Despite such conjecture, however, police are still seeking to establish some connection, other than mere strange coincidence, between the two numbers—one on the automobile used by the bandits and one found in the Koreans home in the French Concession.

LOCAL OFFICIALS HOSTS TONIGHT TO DR. SCHURMAN

American Minister To Be Guest At The Naval Club

Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, American Minister to Peking, who returns to Shanghai from Hangchow today, will be guest of honor at a dinner to be given this evening at the Naval Club by local Chinese officials. The hosts at the dinner will be General Ho Feng-lin, Defense Commissioner; Admiral Tsiang Tseng, Chief of the Admiralty; Mr. C. F. Hsu, Special Commissioner of Foreign Affairs; Mr. Wang Keng-ting, Taoyin of Shanghai; Mr. Hsu Kuo-liang, Chief of the Woosung and Shanghai Constabulary; and Mr. Shen Pao-chang, Magistrate of the Shanghai City.

All American returned students, whether non-members or members, men and women, are invited to attend a reception to be given by the American Returned Students' Club at the club house, P60 Nanking Road, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock in honor of Dr. Schurman.

Dr. Schurman has expressed the desire to meet as many of the American returned students in Shanghai as possible and since this is the only opportunity for the former Cornell President to meet them on his present trip, it is expected that a large number will turn out. More than 200 American college Chinese are located in Shanghai, according to statistics recently compiled by the club.

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, March 30.—Minister Schurman and his party were entertained here last night by the following organisations: Chekiang Provincial Assembly, Chekiang Educational Association, General Chamber of Commerce, Bankers' Association of Hangchow, Bar Association of Hangchow. The American community were invited as special guests.

On behalf of the entertaining organisations the following message was read to Minister Schurman:

"It gives us great pleasure to extend to you, the specially appointed minister to China from the United States of America, our hearty welcome to the city. We appreciate the honor President Harding has done our country in appointing one of your qualifications and experience to serve among us, and we greatly appreciate your visit to us and the opportunity it gives to meet you face to face.

"Because of the common position of the our two great Republics on the coasts of the Pacific Ocean, because of the traditional and real relationship of friendliness between them, and because of the specially valuable and timely assistance your government rendered to China during the recent Conference in Washington, we can assure you that not only the people of Chekiang Province, but the people of China as a whole feel deeply indebted to the government and people of your nation. We believe and bespeak for our mutual friendship and good feeling increasing strength and depth as time goes on.

"Now to you personally and as a representative of our sister Republic and neighbor across the Pacific, we beg, in the name of our fellow citizens throughout this Province, to express our hearty welcome and to extend our best wishes for your good health and heaven's blessings on you for ever."

RESOLUTIONS AT CANNES WILL BE TEST VOTE BASIS

Lloyd George To Ask For Confidence On April 3

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29. — The terms of the much discussed vote of confidence in the Government, which the Prime Minister will move on April 3, were announced by Mr. Austen Chamberlain in the House of Commons today. The vote reads as follows:

"That this House approves the resolutions of the Supreme Council at Cannes as a basis for the Genoa Conference and will support the Government in giving effect thereto."

London, March 29.—In the House of Commons today the Labor Members gave notice of an amendment to the vote of confidence which is to be moved by the Prime Minister on April 3 regretting the restricted scope of the Genoa Conference, and expressing the opinion that the Government does not possess the confidence of and is incompetent to represent the country.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, March 24.—The Japanese delegates to the Genoa Conference, according to the Asahi, Chugai and other papers, will be Baron Gonsuke Hayashi, Ambassador in London; Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, Ambassador in Paris; and Mr. Kengo Mori, Foreign Financial Commissioner in Europe; assisted by Mr. Kawakami, Minister to Poland; Mr. Sato, Counsellor to the Japanese Embassy at Paris and Mr. Matsubara, Counsellor to the Japanese Embassy in Berlin; also five secretaries to Japanese embassies abroad, ten under-secretaries, ten clerks of the Foreign Office Service, Mr. Teiji Sekiba, Secretary and several other representatives of the Finance Department and representatives of the Bank of Japan, the Yokohama Specie Bank, the Mitsui Firm and the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, will be sent to the conference.

(Reuter's Service)

Riga, March 29.—Special precautions have been taken to protect the Russian Delegation to the Genoa Conference, numbering 50 and including M. Chicherin, which arrived today from Moscow.

With the exception of the heads, who are residing at the Russian Legation, the delegates remain on the train, which is carefully guarded. A number of Russian residents at Riga have been arrested.

London, March 29.—The Russian policy at Genoa was indicated by M. Chicherin, the Soviet Commissary of Foreign Affairs, in an interview at Moscow. He maintained that it was possible that Russia would conclude trade agreements by means of loans or concessions to foreign capital without abandoning the economic foundations of Sovietism.

He emphasised the fact that agreements with other governments must be expressed in a form that completely recognised the Soviet Government de jure.

To Charge Koreans As Armed Robbers

A charge of armed robbery will be preferred against three of the four Koreans arrested by the French police Tuesday when they appear before the Japanese Consular Court. The fourth man, who claims American citizenship, will be charged before United States Commissioner F. J. Schuhl tomorrow with receiving stolen property.

The charge against the trio, who were found in possession of Mauser pistols, is that they entered a place in the French town and robbed another Korean of a gold watch. The police suspect that the men have been concerned in other armed robberies which have occurred recently in and around the Settlement.

ADDIS INDUCES U. S. TO CONTINUE IN CONSORTIUM

Sir Charles Puts Heart Into American Bankers

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 30.—Despatches from New York report that the newspapers state that Sir Charles Addis's visit there has decidedly brightened the prospect of a continuance of the Chinese Consortium by putting new heart into the American Group, which had been considering withdrawal.

Sir Charles Addis told the American Group yesterday afternoon that the Washington Conference could be regarded as definitely setting the seal of approval on the Consortium's policy. The power of the tuchuns was waning with the growing spirit in the Provinces to resist military exactions. He looked to this, he said, to solve the problem of reconstruction. Foreign intervention was an unpractical policy. China must be allowed to work out her own salvation.

The speaker expressed the opinion that in the interest of a united China uncompleted contracts for railways should be fulfilled as soon as possible. No step was more likely to bring the Northern and Southern Governments together than the linking up of the Canton-Hankow and Peking-Hankow railways. The time had now come for the Consortium to consider negotiating independently with the autonomous provinces for the construction of specific railway undertakings within their borders.

Not Much Profit At This Boarding House

Some boarding house keepers work on a narrow margin of profit, according to testimony given in a case at the Mixed Court yesterday.

Mrs. H. Zimmerman, 42 Haining Road, was the defendant in the suit, which was for payment of Tls. 82.95 Municipal rates alleged due for the period from July 1 to December 31, 1921. The defendant offered to pay $15 every three months. She paid $78 a month rental, she said, and received $20 a month from each of five boarders, which left her $22. She appealed to the court in the matter, asking how she could be expected to pay the sum claimed. Mr. R. C. Faithful, appearing for the Council, said he did not see how she could pay, since she had incurred many other debts which she could not meet.

The case was remanded for hearing by the Russian assessor.

CANTON BUSILY MANUFACTURING WEAPONS, REPORT

Ten Thousand Rifles Turned Out Monthly, Peking Hears

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, March 27.—The cabinet situation is as befuddled as ever, the only new developments being the usual Monday batch of rumors.

The only reliable information which has come to hand is the report of the activity of the Canton Arsenal. The personnel has been increased by 50 percent and the prospective monthly output is said to be 10,000 rifles, 300,000 rounds of ammunition, and forty machine guns.

Strictly "reliable" military intelligence reports estimate the size to Dr. Sun's army of invasion to be anywhere from 4,000 to 65,000.

The Cantonese minister of the navy has again twice resigned but was persuaded to resume his post. He is anxous to leave Canton and is apparently depressed at not having been able to pay his men their salaries. The Canton Hankow Railroad is reported to have promised him $300,000 a year and has turned over the first installment of $10,000.

President Hsu Shih-chang is reported to be hard at work upon his newest letter of resignation. It is said to be a document well over one thousand characters.

The Prince later in the morning held an audience of Malay rulers in his private sittingroom and following this an investiture in the drawing-room, conferring upon the Sultan of Pahang an honorary Knight Commandership of St. Michael and St. George and a knighthood upon the Honorable Lionel Woodward.

the form of bonus shars is Tls. 780,256.20.

DEBENTURE ISSUE

"At the last annual meeting I stated that it would be necessary to devise other means of providing the necessary funds to liquidate the overdraft and to finance the extension program which was some long way off completion. The company had at that time a debenture issue of Tls. 965,900 issued in 1909/1913 bearing interest at 6 percent per annum and redeemable in 1929. These debentures were secured by a trust deed and it was necessary to obtain the debenture holders assent to the company's release therefrom and accordingly a meeting of debenture holders was called for June 15, 1921 in order to obtain their assent to such release in consideration of the offer to them of debentures of a value corresponding to their holdings to be part of a series of debentures to secure Tls. 4,000,000 to be secured by a new deed of mortgage and trust and in consideration of the undertaking by the company to redeem the debentures held by debenture holders, if any, entitled to dissent and dissenting from the proposed modification, after six months' notice, which was to be given forthwith by the company. This extraordinary resolution was duly passed and a new trust deed signed accordingly and the company announced an issue of Tls. 2,000,000 debentures bearing interest at 8 percent per annum and redeemable after 10 years on six months' notice and within 30 years of the date of issue, at the price of Tls. 95, holders of the existing issues were to have the option of exchanging their holdings for the like amount of debentures of the new issue with repayment in cash of Tls. 5 percent or of repayment on December 31, 1921. Holders of debentures to the face value of Tls. 230,100 elected to exchange into the new issue and of the balance to be redeemed. The remaining debentures were immediately taken up and allotted on July 1, 1921; those in respect of debentures redeemed were allotted to the Secretary on December 31, 1921 and disposed of at 101, the profit being placed to Discount on Debenture Issue Account.

TO WRITE OFF DISCOUNT

"The discount on this issue amounting to Tls. 100,000 will be written off in annual instalments and the proportion for the first six months amounting to Tls. 1,666.67 has been written off for 1921; these instalments will be reduced by any premium on subsequent issues of debentures.

"The company took up Tls. 92,500 of these debentures at 95 as an investment of the Staff Provident Fund, these debentures standing in the names of the Chairman and the Secretary for the time being.

"At the board meeting held on September 28, 1921 it was decided to issue further debentures to the face value of Tls. 500,000 and on November 23, 1921 it was decided to offer these at 101; these debentures were all taken up at the beginning of January, 1922.

LONDON PROTESTS

"The issue of debentures gave rise to considerable adverse criticism by the London Committee who obtained some signatures to a letter of protest. This and a letter from other London shareholders supporting the policy of the Board were received early this year. The position of the directors was set forth somewhat fully in a letter to the London Secretary dated July 8, 1921 which stated inter alia that the telegram stating the London Committee's views that the debenture issue was detrimental to the interests of the company and unjust to London shareholders was received after the directors had already given their undertaking to the holders of the 1909/1913 issue to issue 8 percent debentures at 95 in consideration of their sanctioning the modifications of their rights, in addition deposits for the whole amount had been received and the new trust deed had been signed; that the offer of new shares made at the beginning of the year was made on very favorable terms, for in addition to dividend shareholders were to receive one bonus share for every ten shares already held; this issue was a comparative failure and the company had a large overdraft which by May had increased to approximately Tls. 1,000,000 and to raise money the directors had the doubtful alternative of issuing shares at par or issuing debentures; the former was considered undesirable and impracticable in view of the recent issue at a premium and moreover the quotation of the Company's shares in Shanghai was Tls. 120 which at the then rate of exchange was below par; the directors therefore decided upon an issue of debentures and in view of the expressed intention of the Council to raise Tls. 7,000,000 debentures during the year and in order to take advantage of a certain easiness of money in Shanghai which might be temporary it was desirable that no time should be lost, moreover in view of the necessity of obtaining the sanction of the existing debenture holders it was necessary that the terms should be favorable and that as far as possible risk of failure should be eliminated.

MILLION FOR EXTENSIONS

"You will observe that the amount expended on extensions in 1921 was close on a million and three quarter taels and I would call your special attention to the report of the Engineer-in-Chief under this heading. He anticipates that by this summer the new main will be in commission when the company will have an increase over last year of 50 percent of main pumps and 73 percent of pumping mains. I think it is not sufficiently realised what a vast amount of work is being done in the endeavor to overtake the demand for water and to make up the leeway lost during and after the war when the necessary plant could not be obtained. We have now 122 miles of mains laid in Municipal and other roads, the mileage having been increased by 9½ last year, which does not include the replacing of 4,125 feet of 6" main by 12".

"The total amount of capital employed in the undertaking on December 31, 1921 was Tls. 7,606,896.

HITS COUNCIL'S DELAY

"I will now revert to the question of the company's agreement with the Council made in 1905. This is the fourth year in succession that I have had to refer to this matter as being in abeyance, successive Councils have come and gone without any effective steps being taken to deal with a question of vital importance to the community. These delays cannot be laid at the door of the directors who have done everything in their power by repeated application, written and verbal, official and unofficial, to bring about a meeting with members of the Council which has been promised but never held. In 1918 two meetings were held and of those who carried on the negotiations some have survived, others have died or retired from China. Negotiation by letter is fraught with difficulty when seven or eight months are required for replies, for instance the reply to our letter of June 8, 1921 was received on February 9, 1922. We replied again on February 27 and await acknowledgement.

"It is impossible for shareholders in these circumstances to carry in their heads the pros and cons of a question and as it is very desirable that they should be in a position to understand what are the points at issue we have had printed for their information a pamphlet containing all the correspondence up to and including our letter of February 27, which has not yet appeared in the Municipal Gazette. I sincerely trust that all shareholders who are interested in seeing the company placed once more in a position to earn a dividend that will attract the necessary capital, will study this correspondence.

"It would take too long to give a resume of these letters and I will therefore only comment on the main features with special reference to our letter of February 27.

DEMAND INCREASING

"The matter is really extremely simple. The demand for water which has increased by leaps and bounds in the last ten years, will continue to increase, probably as rapidly, possibly even more rapidly in the succeeding years. Therefore to meet this demand the company must be prepared to continue the extension of its system as required. There is only one way to accomplish this, namely by the outlay of further capital, and capital can only be obtained if the hard headed investor is satisfied beyond doubt that in parting with his money he is going to get a sound security and a fair return for it.

"The consumer on the other hand knows quite well that he cannot get water any more than anything else in this place today at the same price that he used to pay in 1905—seventeen years ago—he also knows that he will get better service from a prosperous concern than from one in a state of semi-starvation. Taking the share and debenture issues together, approximately three-fourths of the seven and a half million taels invested in the company belongs to members of this community who also are interested in seeing that their investment is not depreciated. Thus it is clear that in making a new agreement for the supply of water to the community the interests of supplier and consumer are very closely allied and neither will be served by endeavoring to drive a hard bargain. Nor must it be supposed that because a certain proportion of the share capital, about one-third is held by residents in England, the interests of that minority are being cared for at the expense of the majority here. Although there is a natural feeling that a Shanghai company makes a more direct appeal to most of us it must not be forgotten that in view of the very large call for money to finance the various activities of this growing city, there are times when it is a distinct advantage to have access to the London money market, especially in the case of company continually making large purchases in sterling.

TWO FACTORS INVOLVED

"I want to make it clear that in making a new agreement with the Council the negotiations resolve themselves into two factors, first the financial, secondly the technical. The procedure best suited for reaching finality appears therefore to be discussion in person between representatives of the board and representatives of the Council in the one case and between the company's engineers and the Council's engineers in the other and we are still of opinion that if this procedure, begun in 1918, had been continued with a serious desire on both sides to understand and overcome any difficulties that the situation presented a satisfactory solution of all of them would have been found in six months. As it is, delay has destroyed continuity of ideas as the personnel on both sides has repeatedly changed.

"In making their proposals the board have taken as basic principles: 1. That payment for water should be for quantity supplied, i.e., by meter instead of as at present by rental assessment; 2. That questions affecting supply and distribution which present difficulty in estimating a fair charge and which therefore create opportunities for dispute should be eliminated by including the cost of same in a comprehensive scale per 1,000 gallons to the general body of consumers.

"Assent to the first principle was accorded by the Council in their letter dated April 13, 1921. The questions involved in the second principle remain for settlement and in this connection the company is preparing a scale of rates and a revised draft of agreement to meet the altered conditions.

TO GIVE UP HYDRANTS

"In our letter to the Council of February 27 we conceded several important points:

"1.—We agreed to surrender the existing public hydrants to the municipality free of charge, all future hydrants and their maintenance to be provided by the municipality, but the connections and installation to be provided by the company where and when required free of charge. And it is to be noted that the costs under this agreement would be in the proportion of 27 percent to the municipality and 73 percent to the company.

"2.—We agreed to supply free of charge the supply of water drawn from public hydrants for public purposes up to a total of 1 percent of the total quantity of water supplied under the provisions of the new agreement, this figure being in excess of the average quantity drawn off during the last three years and providing for a supply based on the 1921 figure of 82,000,000 gallons as against 33,500,000 gallons actually drawn off.

"3.—We further agreed to supply free of charge water drawn off from private fire hydrants for fire extinction purposes, and similarly to sprinkler installations provided such hydrants and sprinklers are supplied by a separate and distinct connection at the company's main.

"4.—We have agreed to take the necessary steps to provide a minimum pressure of 45 lbs. per square inch over the whole system of mains, requested by the Council.

"It will be remembered that prior to the agreement of 1905 the company was limited as to the amount of dividend it was allowed to pay. This principle was roundly condemned as unsound by the Chairman of the Council at the ratepayers meeting at which the new agreement was passed as being unbusinesslike, ineffective and not conducive to economical working and in drawing up the new agreement this condition was abandoned and in return for the elimination thereof the company agreed to a maximum rate of 4 percent and 5 percent on rentals of foreign and Chinese dwellings respectively and a fixed rate for the supply by meter and a certain free supply of water was granted to the Municipal Council which was subsequently changed for an allotment of 975 shares free of cost to the Council; up to that time the charges for water supplied to Chinese houses and for other than domestic purposes were at the discretion of the company.

DIVIDEND RESTRICTION

"It is now proposed by the Council to re-introduce the principle of restriction of dividends condemned by the Council of 1905 who had had experience of its working, and to extend that restriction to the General Reserve Fund and Equalisation of Dividend Fund, but to revise the authorised charges for water quinquennially.

"Moreover in suggesting a fixed dividend as a basis upon which the meter tariff is to be determined the Council has apparently overlooked the fact that the company's share capital is in sterling and that consequently the standard would vary with exchange; again a considerable portion of the company's profit is derived from the Fittings Department, the supply to shipping and to certain extra agreement consumers, none of which come within the purview of the negotiations with the Council.

"The Council's original demand that no pipes less than 9" in diameter should in future be laid has been modified by substituting, 'not less than 6"' but this modification is to a large extent rendered nugatory by reserving the right in its absolute discretion to require mains of not less than 9" diameter where existing conditions or early development in their opinion appear to warrant it.

"The Council also claims to be the sole arbiter as to whether any particular extension of a main or provision of a new main should be laid at the cost or part cost of the company or at the cost or part cost of the consumer who might have a solitary house miles away; if it acquiesced in the Council's proposal the company would be obliged to charge a higher rate to all its consumers in order that it might be in a position to supply that consumer; for any main extension might affect the pressure over a large portion of the system.

"In the matter of the company's rules and regulations for water fittings the Council holds that the inspecting and testing of all water supply and heating installations should be carried out by Council's officials and that rules and regulations should be subject to the Council's approval

COUNCIL WANTS DIRECTORS

"Finally the Council considers it essential that it be represented by two nominees on the company's Board of Directors, that the company should furnish detailed half-yearly accounts for its inspection and that proposed extensions and estimated cost thereof should be submitted to the Council before the commencement of each financial year with a covering report from the directors.

"Sumarised, the proposals mean in effect that the Council is to dictate the policy, fix the income, allocate the profits, be sole arbiters without appeal on all points and the company is to find the capital and run the works, but such an arrangement would defeat its own end as the public from whom the funds must be obtained would have no

DISMISSAL OF CHINESE EASTERN BOARD IS ASKED

Manchurian Patriotic Societies Appeal To Peking

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, March 27.—Organisations and special patriotic societies in North Manchuria, in Harbin, Changchun, Mukden and other places, have forwarded a circular telegram to the Peking Government demanding the abolition of the Technical Board of the Chinese Eastern Railway Administration. This Technical Board has been, in effect, international control of the railroad and has been a source of much complication. The people of these districts claim that in accordance with the provisions of the Washington conference, the Technical Board should be dismissed at once and they urge the Peking Government to force a "show down" upon this issue. The statement is as follows:

"The reservations made at the Washington Conference deal with the Chinese Eastern R. R. by diplomatic means and this fact has given rise to much speculation in the minds of our Chinese. The question is this:

"Have the Powers recognised the Chinese point of view that interference with the Chinese Eastern Railway means an infringement of China's sovereign rights or will the powers seek to gain by means of this reservation their object of international control which they have found impossible to achieve at the conference?

"If the powers have no ulterior motive, why is the Technical Board not abolished? According to the powers' declaration of 1919 this board was created to meet the special requirements of the Siberian expedition. The board was admittedly only of a temporary nature and now that the expedition has been withdrawn there is no further reason for its existence which leads both Chinese and Russians to fear that the Powers have broken faith with them.

"People in North Manchuria therefore have organised societies protesting against the continued existence of the Technical Board and, unless the Washington Conference declarations are a mere scrap of paper, the Technical Board should be closed forthwith."

Charge Japanese With Theft During Liquidation Sale

While a liquidation sale was in progress in the Shanghai House Furnishing Company in Nanking Road Wednesday afternoon a Japanese was caught stealing two blankets. He will be charged with the theft in the Japanese Consular Court.

Another Japanese reported to the police Wednesday that he had been held up and robbed of a gold watch and a cigarette case by ricsha coolies while he was walking on Woosung Road. Another Japanese, charged with being drunk and disorderly, and with having refused to pay a ricsha coolie and assaulting a policeman, was sentenced to three days in jail by the Japanese Consular Court.

Third Man Arrested In Connection With Kalee Jewel Theft

Another Russian has been arrested by the French police in connection with the jewel robbery at the Kalee Hotel last fall.

The Russian, A. Skivisky, was arrested by detectives Wednesday night at 16 Range Road, supposedly on information secured from the Russian, Kiokin who was arested last week after being shadowed for several months.

The police are said to have found some of the jewels in Kiokin's possession and also secured information that may lead to the arrest of another man within a few days.

Tuchun Tien Chung-yu of Shantung returned to his office yesterday. No change is anticipated in the provincial administration except that a new civil governor may be appointed to satisfy the people who are opposed to the new taxes proposed by Tien.

Alleging that he was merely the tool of Chin Yun-peng, the former premier, in misappropriating government funds, Pan Fu, former Acting Minister of Finance, has appealed to Chin for relief in connection with the graft charges made by Tung Kung, the Acting Minister of Justice.

The Russian agent in Peking is returning home within the next few days. The Sino-Russian Commercial agreement is still pending. It is understood that the Russians are waiting for results of the Genoa Conference before taking any steps in this matter and the Dairen Conference.

Japanese Stabbed By Soldier Near Arsenal, Is Report

A Japanese student of Tung Wen College was stabbed by a Chinese soldier attached to the 39th Infantry Brigade near the Arsenal during the forepart of the week, according to Chinese reports. The student is said to have been rowing on the Whangpoo and was on his way back to the College when attacked and stabbed under the left ear by the soldier, who was intoxicated. Other students of the school went to their comrade's rescue and took him to the College hospital. The soldier is reported to have been arrested by Chinese police and taken to the Lunghua barracks jail.

BOXING CLUB "AND OTHERS" TO MEET SCRAPPERS FROM CARLISLE APRIL 5TH AND 6TH

Untutored Pugs Expected To Fight With S. B. C. Against Navy

Boxers of the British cruiser Carlisle will have their chance at retrieving their prestige against scrapppers of the Shanghai Boxing Club on Wednesday and Thursday, April 5 and 6 at the Town Hall, according to official announcement made yesterday. The boat's men met and lost to the local fighters a year ago, and now are out to redeem themselves.

The announcement made yesterday finally clinches the boxing tournament which has been hanging fire for some little time due to the scarcity of local men to fill a program against the sailors. Wilson's inability to fight due to weak heart, Martin's inability to devote time to training, and Eddie Siemssen's uncertain condition had the local management worried for some weeks as to whether or not the tournament could be arranged, but now, with the definite announcement of the dates, it may be assumed that several first class welters and other huskies have been found to meet the best men from the Carlisle in the feature bouts.

The announcement put out yesterday bills the Carlisle men against the Shanghai Boxing Club "and others," meaning that some talent outside of the club has been procured. Exactly who compose the "others" has not yet been announced but it is assumed that some of the "untutored pugs" who some time ago challenged the local world to a tournament have finally come to the front and offered to co-operate with the Club against the Navy men.

Should the local club find the right kind of talent there will be two star events, one with a local man opposing Bowdidge, the welter champion of the Far Eastern fleet, and another against Sailor Darbyshire who made such a strong showing here at the last tournament. Cheney, the new boxing find of the Club will go into one of the semi-finals, and perhaps "Baby" Siemssen will go in another. Carlson, Johannson and other light stars of the club are figured on to care for any sailor at or near their weight.

A new ring will be used at the coming tournament, one specially constructed under the direction of Mr. G. H. Parkes, Physical Director of the Shanghai Public School, who is the big man behind boxing in Shanghai. The ring will be without the old-fashioned posts which block the spectators' view, and will have every other feature attaching to modern boxing acoustics. Seats will be sold at $3 for reserved, and at $2 and $1 for others. Bookings may be made with Moutrie and Co., or with Mr. Parkes at the Public School, or may be purchased at the door.

HOLT WINS DRILL DOWN

Private Holt of the Second Platoon won the drill down which was a feature of the drill on Monday evening. Each platoon held a preliminary drill to select three candidates to represent it in the finals. The representatives of the First Platoon were Corporal Van Hook and Privates Vaughan and Honigsberg. Privates Holt F. T. Smith and Private, First Class, Schlobohm were the selections of the Second Platoon.

The commands by Lieutenant Olsen were shot out in great style, mixed up with catch commands. Private Holt is to be highly congratulated on his success. He was awarded a small silver cup as a souvenir of the event.

Carl Mays, Yank Twirler, In Row With Others

Carl Mays, celebrity of baseball equabbles, is having another row. He claims now that he is not under contract with the New York Yankees. He has reported for Spring training, however. The Yank owners dispute Mays's statement and claim he signed last Winter for three years. Mays declares he will not sign with the Yanks again unless he is assured he can pitch exhibition games next Fall in case the Yanks again win the American League pennant. Y'POO BOWLERS ELECT OFFICERS AT ANNUAL MEET

At the annual general meeting of the Yangtszepoo Lawn Bowls Club held at Shepherd's Cafe last night a marked growth of membership was noted, 51 new players having joined up during the year 1921. The financial report of the club showed a very satisfactory condition with a considerable net profit left on the year's workings. The coming year promises well for the popularity and success of the club. President J. R. Tweedlie presided at the meeting. A good number of members attended.

The report recalled the results of the various club competitions, the Closing Day competitions and the inter-club matches, the latter however not being so fortunate, the club having lost three matches, one to the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Club, another to the Recs Bowlers, and the third to the Junior Golf Club, bowling section.

The election of officers for the new season resulted as follows:

Honorary President, A. W. Brankston; President George Johnston; Vice President J. Grieve; Captain, J. R. Tweedlie; Vice-Captain, R. Peden, and Honorary Secretary, J. M. Smith. The new committee are Messrs A. Cheetham, F. Ferrier, J. Walker, L. H. Turner, F. Lloyd, A. McMurdo.

The chairman in his address said in part:

"Our net profit on the year's working is $437.28—very satisfactory indeed, especially when we take into account that we reduced our subscription last year by $1.00 which means a difference of $143.00. Then again last year's balance sheet showed $190.00 as donations for prizes whereas this year we can only show $24.00.

"On the other side of this subject we have an increase of $50.00 in the bar rent, and $90.00, less for Boys, Coolies, etc., than in the previous year, we also show a saving of $96.00 in the amount of money laid out in prizes. The closing days expenses were heavy being $97.00 more than last year, but we had a splendid day and I am sure all who were present had a most enjoyable time.

"I would like to say how pleasing it is to see the growth and popularity of our club increasing. Last year we enrolled 51 new members. Both greens have been widened and re-turfed, giving us an additional 4 rinks, also the felicity of playing both ways. I trust at the beginning of this season that members will lose no time in getting together, so as to be in good form for the beginning of the matches. We have Messrs. Ferrier and McMurde back from home leave again, so what with their assistance, and our increased membership, the Yangtszepoo Club should be something to reckon with."

Shanhaikuan R.R. Beat Changli Team

(China Press Correspondence)

Changli, March 27.—The Shanhaikuan Railroad team met Ch'angli Middle School here today in a closely contested soccer football match, Shanhaikuan winning by a score of 1-0. Parks, the only Westerner in the game, starred for Shanhaikuan, and Chou, former Illinois State University athlete did brilliant work for Changli. Parke kicked the only goal of the game. The Changli boys had no difficulty in getting the ball down to their opponent's goal but lacked the team work necessary to get it over. With better organisation and coaching they should be able to clean up handsomely on the Shanghai team. The game was characterised throughout by clean playing and a fine spirit on both sides, and was very satisfactorily refereed by R F. Lowry.

difficulty in finding a more suitable investment.

"As regards the Council's representatives on the Board on which so much stress is laid, it is perhaps sufficient to say that within my recollection which goes back a good many years, Councillors and ex-Councillors have always been prominent among the directors and we have today, of the four directors on our Board, two gentlemen who have done good service on the Council, one as an ordinary Councillor and one as a Chairman of Council. During my term of service with the company we have also had directors who were at the same time Councillors, which I think proves conclusively that there has been no prejudice on our part to those members of the community who have earned the confidence of ratepayers as legislators and guardians of public interests, but they have always joined the Board by invitation and election with the object of serving the shareholders as a whole, as in duty bound, and not for the furtherance of any separate and specific end. The only objection that could be offered in their case was that when matters arose on which for the time being the views of Company and Council were at variance, they as honorable men, abstained from active participation in the discussion and each body lost the assistance of one of its members.

"I may add that when the conference in 1918 took place the company selected as its delegates the two members of the Board who had served some years on the Council.

TAKE UP PHONE SHARES

"Investments: It was decided to accept the offer of 10 new shares of the Shanghai Mutual Telephone Co., Ltd., at the price of Tls. 70 per share and these were taken up accordingly increasing the company's holding to 52 shares.

"It was decided in May to instruct the London Secretary to sell the company's holding of £20,000 5 percent War Loan 1929-1947 at not under 86; the holding was accordingly sold at 88½, ex coupon, and the proceeds amounted to £17,870.10.9. This sale resulted in an exchange profit to the company of Tls. 24,113.99 which has been credited to profit and loss account.

"This investment was held as an investment of the Staff Provident Fund and has been replaced by taking up Tls. 92,800 of the company's debentures at 95; these debentures are registered in the names of the Chairman and the Secretary for the time being.

Stock Exchange Quotation

"All the company's shares are now officially quoted on the London Stock Exchange.

"Mr. R. McE. Dalgliesh resigned from the Board on his departure from Shanghai at the end of May and Mr. H. M. Little was appointed a director in his place.

"Mr. Edward Pettit, who had been a director in London from 1885 to 1887, a member of the Committee since 1887 and Chairman thereof from 1907 to 1916, resigned in June 1921 and Mr. A. M. Marshall, who was a director in Shanghai in 1914, was appointed to the Committee in his place.

"Mr. C. Selby Moore was appointed London Secretary as from July 1, 1921.

"Mr. A. P. Wood was on leave from April 1, 1921 and retired from the company's service on December 31, 1921, the Board granting him a gratuity of £5,000 and a pension of £500 per annum. This is the first annual meeting since his retirement and I am sure I am voicing your thoughts when I say how much we miss his genial presence among us on this occasion.

"Mr. F. B. Pitcairn was appointed Engineer-in-Chief and Manager, Mr. C. D. Pearson, Deputy Engineer-in-Chief and Manager and Mr. W. R. Walter, Secretary as from January 1, 1922.

"On behalf of the Board I desire to record the loyal and efficient services of the Staff during a very strenuous and trying year."

PUTS QUESTIONS

Following the chairman's address Mr. S. B. Neill arose to put two questions—one a request for information concerning the powers and responsibilities of the London Committee and the other a query as to whether it would not be to advantage of the company if the company were capitalised in silver instead of in sterling and if it would not be advisable to convert the company into a silver company. Mr. Cubitt replied at length, quoting from the Articles of Association to show the status of the London Committee and entering into details to show the difficulty and disadvantages of a conversion of the company on a silver basis.

The following resolutions were then passed unanimously:

Proposed by the chairman, seconded by Mr. A. W. Burkill.—That the report and accounts for the year 1921, as presented, be accepted and passed.

Proposed by the chairman, seconded by Mr. A. W. Burkill.—That a final dividend for the year 1921 of 20/- per share be declared; payable in Shanghai at Exchange 3/3 per Tael.

Proposed by Mr. A. W. Burkill, seconded by Mr. S. B. Neill.—That Mr. C. G. S. Mackie be re-elected a director of the company.

Proposed by Mr. A. J. H. Carlill, seconded by Mr. A. S. Campbell.—That Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews be re-elected auditors of the company.

Chamber Objects To Wharfage Increase

A protest to the proposed increase in local wharfage dues has been telegraphed by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Agriculture and Commerce and to the Bureau of Maritime Affairs, according to the Chinese press.

The message sets forth that the charges were set at one mace per hundred taels by the Land Regulations and that now the Council proposes to increase the charges without consulting the Chinese merchants, who are amenable to taxation the same as foreigners.

SHROFF CHARGED

Misappropriation of $460.10 was charged to a shroff of the Carlton Cafe who appeared at the Mixed Court yesterday.

Mr. Louis Ladow, of the Carlton, testified that the defendant had collected the money on chits between March 1 and 15 and had failed to turn it in. The shroff admitted the charge and said he had spent the money for "medicine." Mr. Ladow said the shroff had been in his employ for ten years and he did not wish to see him unduly punished if the money was returned. The defendant thought there was a chance for him to repay the amount so the case was remanded for two weeks.

The drama of every woman's yesterday, to-day and to-morrow

Beautiful beyond conception. Thrilling beyond anticipation. Outspokenly dramatic beyond comparison.

Not its thousands of players, not its barbaric beauties, not its pagan dancers, not its massive scenes, not its sweeping panoramas make it great. They are but a background for its triumphant theme of mother right and mother love.

ENGLISH COTTON MILL WORKERS TO CONFER ON WAGES

Representatives Of 300,000 Will Debate Proposed Cut

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29.—At a meeting today in Manchester of representatives of 300,000 operative cotton spinners and weavers and the employers committee it was agreed to confer on Friday in regard to the employers' demand for a reduction of wages of over six shillings in the pound.

The card-room workers numbering 78,000 did not participate in the meeting as they are acting separately.

A deputation of the Lancashire Members of the House of Commons also argued that the Indian Cotton Industry did not need protection because it had been able to compete successfully even in the days when the import duty was balanced by a similar countervailing excise duty.

Lord Winterton, Under Secretary of State for India, who replied in consequence of Lord Peel's departure, said he was not able to promise that Lord Peel would undertake to re-examine the subject on the lines suggested by the deputation but he fully agreed with the desirability of co-operation between the Home and Indian Governments in the matter and promised that Lord Peel would consider their representations to the fullest extent.

YUNNAN FAVORS SUN AS SOLONS OPPOSE MARCH

Tang Enters Capital Without Resistance; Army Said To Be Unequipped

(Special To The China Press)

Canton, March 30.—While the opposition of the Provincial Assembly of Kwangtung may impede the progress of the Punitive Expedition of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, the entry of General Tang Chi-yao into the capital of Yunnan adds great impetus to the aspiration of the Southern leader.

General Tang, who was Tuchun of Yunnan up to last year, when he was ousted by General Koo Ping-chen, entered the capital on March 25 without any resistance. Part of Koo's troops changed their allegiance and the remainder proclaimed themselves neutral. Mr. Ching Han-ting, Civil Governor of Yunnan, threw the gates of the city wide open and welcomed back the former military governor.

A proclamation has been issued by Tang, pledging his support to the punitive expedition of Dr. Sun and re-iterating his allegiance with the Southern cause in general. He is determined that he will drive all his former enemies, members of the Chenghsueh clique, from Yunnan.

On the other hand, the Kwangtung Provincial Assembly maintains, that it is suicidal to allow the provincial treasury to be drained dry by the military expedition, involving seven provinces. The parliamentarians allege that the Canton troops in Yinteh have refused to march forward on account of the lack of funds, while Kwangsi troops are gathering in Neiyuan for counter action.

The Canton army, they say, is very low in their fighting spirit because Dr. Sun could only give orders without making the necessary provisions. The result was that the army had already suffered two reverses, one in Kweilin and the other at Neiyuen, where a great quantity of arms were lost.

Japanese Silkers To Stop Sales If Price Goes Too Low

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, March 25.—The suspension of the sale of raw silk products quoted lower than Y.1,550 per 1,000 kin has been agreed upon by the Yokohama Silk Dealers, according to a statement appearing in the Chugai Shogyo this morning. The policy adopted is to prevent a further fall in the silk quotations.

The adverse condition of the money market, in the opinion of some of the experts, may in all probability render this move ineffectual and for that reason an appeal has been made to leading Tokio businessmen headed by Viscount Shibusawa asking that they give every assistance in maintaining the agreement among the silk dealers throughout the country. The sought for assistance, has, according to the same paper, been assured by the local businessmen.

Lipkowska Concert

Another delightful musical program was given last night by the famous Russian songstress Lydia Lipkowska and Alexander Sklarevski, pianist, who are to be hard in a final concert on April 1. Last night's program was presented at the Lyceum theater before a well filled and tremendously enthusiastic house which called again and again upon the two artists for encores.

A Chopin selection by Sklarevski was the opening number and this was followed by a group of Spanish pieces by Miss Lipkowska In the second interval a group of old and modern English songs were given. Costumes of the periods of the songs Miss Lipkowska sang, both Spanish and English, were particularly noteworthy.

RESERVE RULING ON JESSFIELD GAMBLING CASE

Judgment was reserved in the Spanish Consular Court yesterday at the conclusion of the case in which a Chinese named Nyi Kyni-ling, together with another Chinese and a Spanish subject—Poo Sean-chuen and F. Evangelista—are charged with running an extensive gambling establishment at 4 Jessfield Road.

Stories of tremendous losses by local Chinese of wealth were told by witnesses at the last session of the hearing, one well-known man being said to have lost $100,000 in a single night's play in the resort.

The case was heard by Don Luis Rubio Amoeda, Spanish Consul-General, and Mr. K. E. Newman represented the plaintiff, a Chinese named Chang Tsang-lee, while Mr. A. S. Allan appeared for the defendant Nyi.

The principal witness at the closing session was one Zang Tsang. He testified that he had gone to the Jessfield Road gaming den at the invitation of the defendant and that on his first night there he had won $100. Subsequently he lost heavily and finally, when he was about $1,400 behind the game, he became suspicious that the play was "crooked" and raised a violent protest. When he had done so, he testified, he was taken aside to the accountant's room by the defendant and his losses were refunded to him so that he would not interfere with the heavier play which was going on.

Mr. Allan declared the charge to be supported by evidence which was merely rubbish and said that it had been brought against his client for the sole purpose of extorting money from him. He submitted that it could not be entertained by any civilised court and further declared that the complainant was a member of a gang of loafers which made a practise of preying upon respectable merchants and blackmailing them out of money.

(China Press Service)

Tokio, March 28.—A fire at Hamamatsu today destroyed the Yamaha Piano factory. Twelve hundred people have been rendered idle, and the damage exceeds one million yen.

Cites Precedents For Indian Fund

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29.—Lord Winterton, Under Secretary of State for India, in moving the resolution, in the House of Commons today, authorising the Secretary of State for India to raise in the United Kingdom sums not exceeding £50,000,000 for the service of the Government of India, explained that this was no new step.

A number of similar acts had been passed previously, the last being in 1910, the proceeds of which would not have been sufficient until now excepting that the war had delayed the carrying out of the capital expenditure on the railways and irrigation. The measure was thus largely a routine matter and in no way connected with the Indian Budget.

Lorn Winterton explained that the Government of India was entirely responsible for the capital and interest and expressed his complete confidence in the country's financial stability.

Delhi, March 29.—A British punitive expedition from the Bhamo and Lassio battalions chased Chinese brigands who had previously attacked and partially burned the town of Muse, in the Northern Shan States. The British force captured the brigands' fort at the point of the bayonet, killing eighty, including the leader. One British officer was severely wounded and one Indian was killed and four Indians wounded.

Improved Control

Some Contractors or Consultants might say they do not trouble about these "things" because their clients do not ask for them. How are the clients to know of them?

The Consultant or Contractor who presistently ignores improved methods of switching, shuts his eyes to a good part of the advantages of electric lighting.

Improved control is the order of the day, and we are fully alive to the fact.

Let us advise with you.

Estimates For Dutch Indies Forts Slashed

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29.—It is reported from Amsterdam that in the Second Chamber the Minister of Marine submitted a proposal modifying the Naval Bill with regard to the strength of the fleet and the construction of bases in the Dutch Indies.

He said that it appeared wise, after an exchange of views with the Dutch Indies' Government, to reduce the cost of the construction of naval fortifications in the Indies, owing to the unfavorable state of the Indies' finances.

He proposed to extend the time in which the work must be finished from six to ten years, and that during the first six years the Indies should contribute 32,087,000 guilders towards the Naval budget instead of 73,974,000 guilders, as was at first decided.

Spot and forward bar silver were up another ½d. in London yesterday.

The New York price advanced to 65½ cents, and the London-New York cross rate to 437.

The official rates here today were unchanged from yesterday.

Our market opened firm and became very strong indeed during the course of the day.

At the opening, business in Sterling was done at 3-4 for March and 3-3⅞ for May-June.

Gold Dollars were done at the opening at 72¾ for March and 72½ for April-May.

However, as speculators were strong sellers, rates were forced up until, in the afternoon there were sellers of Sterling at 3-4¼ for March and 3-4⅛ for April-May.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the same time at 73⅛ for March, 73 for April and 72¾ for May-June.

The market, while very firm, was quiet with banks rather unwilling buyers.

India and China bought silver in London yesterday and the market there is reported as being steady.

New York report their market as firm with good buyers.

A final dividend of 4½ percent, making a total of 7½ percent for the year was announced yesterday at the annual general meeting of the Shanghai Land Investment Company. This is as against 7 percent for 1920.

It was further proposed and passed that Tls. 90,000 be put to depreciation and renewals, bringing the account to Tls. 300,000. Tls. 5,000 is transferred to Special Reserve Account and it is proposed to open a dividend equalisation account of Tls. 20,000 and carry forward Tls. 4,929.70. The chairman stated that prospects for the coming year are good, all property being well let and in good condition while repairs should be light.

Mr. C. R. Burkill was appointed a director and Mr. Gilbert Davis was re-elected a director, Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews being re-elected auditors.

Hongkong Gov't To Handle Slave Issue

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 29.—Replying to Commander Kenworthy in the House of Commons, Mr. E. F. L. Wood, Under-Secretary for the Colonies, said that the Governor of Hongkong would doubtless consider the best steps to prevent the removal of mui tsai from the Colony against their wishes and interests.

KINGMAN & BROS.
How to Preserve the Teeth

In order to keep the teeth in a good condition scientific precaution must be taken. Through negligence, decay and numerous other affections such as tooth-ache, dental periostitis, esteo-periostitis, necrosis of the jaw, etc., may arise. During the process of ingestion, there are settled on the teeth some deposits of mineral and organic matters, called tartar, which possesses a morbid power of pressing the gum. As an inevitable result of the presence of this tartar, the teeth will become elongated and movable and will, by degrees, absorb away the enamel, leading ultimately to the decay and degeneration of the teeth. The tartar is so hard and resistant to the process of brushing that it cannot be scraped off except with dental instruments specially devised for that purpose.
Dr. KINGMAN offers to the public his service for preserving their teeth at an annual subscription Fee of $10.00 per head to be paid in advance.
The work to be done by Dr. KINGMAN to the subscribers consist in:—
(1) Cleaning of the teeth quarterly.
(2) Filling with gold platinum alloy only, when the teeth present holes.
(3) Inspecting the teeth at any time at the desire of the subscribers.

American Army Bill Carries $288,000,000

(China Press Service)

Washington, March 29.—The house has passed without rollcall, the Army appropriation bill carrying $288,000,000.

The bill, as sent to the Senate, provides for reduction to 115,000 enlisted men exclusive of 7,000 Philippine Scouts and 11,000 officers on July 1. The house put limitations on the provision for the return of all United States troops from China, Hawaii, Panama and the Rhine.

The Navy bill still awaits action by the house.

Successor Named To Minister Obata

(China Press Service)

Tokio, March 30.—Mr. Katsuji Debuchi, who has served as counsellor of the Japanese embassies in Berlin and Washington, will succeed Mr. Obata, Minister to Peking, according to reports based on good authority becoming public here today.

It is said to be doubtful that Mr. Obata will return to China from Japan after he has assisted in the settlement of Chinese affairs as an outcome of the Washington Conference. Mr. Debuchi is expected to be the first minister of a changed policy toward China by the Japanese government.

LITTLE BODIES AND BIG PAINS.
TEETHING WITHOUT TEARS THROUGH BABY'S OWN TABLETS.
The misery and pain that many babies suffer through teething time is expressed eloquently enough in fits of pitiful crying, fever, refusal of food, and diarrhoea—or perhaps stipation. Baby's Own Tablets—guaranteed to contain no opiates and to be perfectly harmless—act like magic, relieve pain, comfort baby and give rest to the mother, while teething progresses without tears.
Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, are safe and pleasant for the youngest infant and the growing child. Besides being so helpful during the teething period they remove constipation, allay feverishness, cure colic, indigestion and worms.
Obtainable from chemists, also at 60 cents the vial, post free from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Hangchow Host To Dr. Schurman

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, March 29.—Hangchow has made Minister Schurman's visit a gala occasion. Hundreds of school children and college students united with the officials to greet the Minister and his party on their arrival at the city station today at noon. Thousands of people lined the streets as the party rode up from the stations and shops along the way were flying their flags. "Old Glory" was more in evidence in the city than on any other former occasion.

Minister Schurman and his party are in the hands of the Hangchow officials this afternoon. The itinerary takes them to see the beauties of West Lake, famous in the song and story of China. The guides of the party are uniformed officers, who are assisted by some of the English speaking community as interpreters.

The foreign population of the city will greet the Minister and his party this afternoon at a reception given by the local chapter of the American Red Cross in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch. Leading officials are invited as guests. Tomorrow is to be spent in further sightseeing, together with a reception given in the evening by the officials and the other organisations of the city.

Krassine's Plan For Russia

Land hunger was one of the chief moving forces behind the Russian revolution of 1917; land freedom and the plenty of the soil formed the basis of the Bolshevik revolution of 1921. The entire new program of the Soviet leaders, comments the New York Herald, adopted at the memorable meeting of the Third Internationale early last year, hinges on the traditional economic creed that "the Russian peasantry is bound to the earth by indestructible bonds." The new proachment of the Soviets is that Russia must be saved by the prosaic method of supplying the land free, land owning peasantry with seeds and plows and permitting it to work out the destiny of Russia as naturally and instinctively as an ant burrows in the earth or a bee lays up nourishment for winter.

Leonid Krassine, Soviet Trade Commissioner in London, has published in England an outline of the new program. He sketches the development of the Russian peasant in the years of war and revolution from a backward, narrow minded slave to a progressive, forward looking citizen, master of his own destiny, willing to adopt the most advanced ideas on agriculture as well as on life in general.

"The Russian peasant's wife," Krassine submits as proof of this, "has become accustomed to dresses of good quality; the village has developed a demand not only for clothing and footgear of town patterns but for perfumes, adornment and even jewelry. In view of all this, in view of the boundless agricultural expanse of Russia, and taking into consideration the extraordinary wealth of its natural resources we are justified in anticipating an unprecedented development of agriculture and the development of a consuming market of dimensions unknown to recent history."

Against this background Krassine unfolds his plan, which was the foundation of the suggestion by Prime Minister Lloyd George for an international financial consortium composed of capitalistic nations to finance extensive equipment for the Russian farmers and to rehabilitate the railways and river transport.

The Soviet Government, in return for the aid of foreign capital, would grant immense timber concessions and oil mining rights, and would lease to foreign corporations vast tracts of land in the steppe country, where the black loam is fitted for wheat farming and plantation production on the scale familiar in the southern and middle western sections of the United States.

The new scheme does not envisage the return of properties in Russia to their former private owners, even in the case of large industries, because these have been divided up and distributed among new owners from whom it would be impossible to get them back. But "if the leaders of European and world capitalism can show sufficient statesmanship to conclude an agreement for the economic regeneration of Russia on condition of receiving normal pre-war capitalist profits we may expect to see a series of successful economic undertakings which in a very few years will allow Russia to become what she ought to become—the granary of Europe."

Foreign investors who constitute world capitalism may have their own opinion of a scheme which on the one hand offers them the opportunity to sink more cash "at pre-war capitalist profits," while on the other hand it dismisses with a single gesture the rights of previous investors who did exactly what world capitalism is asked to do now.

Beer Prices In Germany Rise As Mark Declines

BY KARL H. VON WIEGAND

Berlin, Feb. 4.—American prohibition, together with the devaluation of the German mark and Austrian crown, have had a devastating effect upon the once flourishing export trade of the Pilsner breweries in Bohemia and Moravia, now constituent parts of Czecho-Slovakia.

Over a million gallons of the foaming fluid were exported into Germany before the war. Austria-Hungary consumed the same amount, and half a million gallons were shipped across the Atlantic.

After Germany's economic debacle, drastic steps were taken to bar out all articles of luxury, among these being Pilsner beer, by raising the duty from 900 to 3,900 marks a hundred gallons. A hectolitre, or twenty-two gallons, of Pilsner delivered at the German frontier now costs around 1,400 marks, or about four times the price of genuine "Muenchner."

As a consequence of this the once popular Pilsner has now disappeared from the repertoire of the German beer addict. To make matters worse, Germany has turned the tables upon her neighbor and is exporting increased quantities of her home-made brews into Czecho-Slovakia.

As far as Austria is concerned, only a millionaire can indulge in the luxury of a glass of Pilsner, now that a hectolitre costs 20,000 crowns at the brewery, in addition to the high duty on this article which the Austrian Government requires shall be paid in effective gold crowns.

The twenty-three large breweries in Czecho-Slovakia whose production amounts to four million gallons annually, are now taking steps to "freeze out" the 454 smaller plants by cutting prices and thus consolidating their own interests as far as the home trade is concerned.

OUR PUBLIC SERVANTS

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS.

Sir,—We have here in Shanghai public servants pronounced best paid in the world, but I am almost sure we do not get the best out of our best money for simultaneous with the Municipal notice that the approaches to the Szechuen Road bridge will be closed, up comes something and the approaches to the Kiangse Road bridge are trenched and fenced with half a dozen notice boards. The ratepayers who are being bled white to provide motor cars for sanitary inspectors and an array of other more or less useless inspectors expect that when one approach is closed the other would not be interrupted under any circumstances. The length of time the Szechuen Road bridge has been closed is a very poor show when "best paid men" are concerned. In any other country an official inquiry would have been instituted and the responsible official called to attention or if necessary shaken. Here it is quite an easy matter. No one seems to take or have any responsibility. It is merely necessary to tell the public what has been done several weeks ago. That is to say according to the "Organ" so much sand has been poured in, so many coolies employed, etc., etc., a report which an ordinary man in the street can do for less pay and without a motor car. The majority of Shanghai public, except doctrinaires of Adam Smith, are sick at heart with "the best paid men in the world." I am, etc,

NEWSPAPER REGULATIONS

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS.

Dear Sir.—Regarding this matter of registering printed matter and should it not be the registration of newspapers and regular publications, rather than the registration of everything that comes from the printing press and the typewriter, I would like to suggest an amendment similar to that which has been the law in America since the War, namely, that all newspapers, magazines, etc., should publish at certain intervals a sworn statement giving the names and addresses of all owners of more than one percent of stock in that particular publication.

Such a law would be of immense value to the general public in Shanghai. It would let us all know exactly whose opinions in general were being expressed and from what angle the news was being handled. In America, for example, it was ascertained that there were various alien influences subsidising the existing press and establishing papers for the purpose of forwarding their own particular brand of propaganda. This press law has worked great results in bringing these things to the light. Such a law here would show in the clear just who controlled the paper that we were reading and give us some line on the psychology of the editor! (Of course I do not suggest that his opinions are necessarily colored by the counting room!) Such a law is needed for the Chinese press as well as the foreign for it is common report that some of these papers are not entirely disassociated from national or from partisan political direction.

The press is a powerful influence for good and for evil and anything that will help the general public to understand how to estimate correctly the angle from which their news is being handled will be of great assistance and interest to the public.

If this is not sufficiently drastic, why not give the Secretary of the Council access to the accounts of the newspapers and require issued from time to time a financial statement showing what money, if any, has been contributed to the publication other than that paid in by subscribers and advertisers? Such requirements from the numerous, we believe all too numerous, publications issued in these settlements would help to drive propaganda into the open and eliminate undesirable elements.

If we are to deal with this matter why not do so adequately? There are other things we would like which we do not find in our newspapers. Why not have suggestions from every source and now that we have taken in hand the regulation of our newspapers, etc., why not do so adequately? Enclosing my card, Yours humbly,

ANTI-PROP A. GANDA.

CHINESE EXCLUSION HERE

Editor: THE CHINA PRESS.

Dear Sir: It is an enraging thing to learn that unnecessary restriction on the part of the Municipal Council against the Chinese in such a small matter as entering parks open for the 'foreign community' is still unscrupulously practiced.

The other day when we tried to go again into the Jessfield Park for the first time we were kindly informed by the gentleman in charge of 'all parks in Shanghai' (as we were told) that no Chinese is allowed to go into the park.

Now, Mr. Editor, we know fully well that this attitude of excluding Chinese from any foreign garden in Shanghai has been adopted for a long time; but we know also that the exclusion was confined only to those in Chinese dress. Enraging as the prohibition is, we cannot but admit the reasonableness of the idea, because without such prohibition any park in this locality would be crowed with Chinese people who are in long gowns, the form of which rendered them hard to be distinguished one from the other, the educated from the illiterate. The fact that we have never seen Chinese in foreign dress being excluded gave us proof that the Municipal Council did not mean to exclude the Chinese as a whole. But ultimately we were excluded!

We do not want to emphasise too much, Mr. Editor, that this is still within our territory, that any insult like this is too painful for us to bear; but what we want to say is that whatever restrictions are made against us must be made in a spirit of fairness and reasonableness.

We have read the notice given out by the secretary, Mr. N. O. Nadeli, that the park is open for the foreign community, which is very ambiguous, for it may mean those people coming from outside countries and may also mean people in foreign dress and this is what we had always taken it to be. But the gentleman in charge of 'all the gardens in Shanghai' made it clear and definite to us that foreign community means Europeans or white people. There would be no objection on our part if what he says is applied to all other non-European and non-white, besides we Chinese. However, it is not the case, for we see the Japanese as well as the Hindus are admitted. What is the reason? Does it mean that because the Japanese have a strong army back of them they must be admitted? If so, very well; we agree, because this is still a world of "might is right." But how about the Hindus? Is there also a nice reason for this? Is it because the Hindus are big men; or is it because by admitting them the Chinese can be more glaringly distinguished as the most hideous people?

There are reasonable and just people in this locality. We would like humbly to submit this matter to your readers for their judgment. As we know, bad consequences are always the outcome of the creation of bad feelings among people of different nationalities, that unnecessary exclusion of one class in favor of another is very dangerous. We should also know that the strongest does not always win, and that the course of history will ever be repeating itself until all men will repent that after all justice, fairness, and reasonableness are the most sure means to peace, permanent peace. Enclosed please find our cards. Yours respectfully,

CHINESE.

Poincare Assails Movie Diplomacy

BY STEPHANE LAUZANNE
Editor in Chief of Le Matin

I called on Raymond Poincare, the new French Premier, the day following his installation at the Quai d'Orsay. I found him comfortably seated behind a table covered with documents and admirably lighted by a powerful electric light.

This fact alone impressed me favorably. I like to see the table of a statesman covered with bundles of papers because it proves that he works on facts and not with his imagination. I like to see the papers well lighted because it proves that he intends to read them and not leave them asleep under their covers.

Moreover, Poincare is a statesman of the type of Charles Evans Hughes; he believes in the power of facts and in the virtue of working hard. He deals with politics as if he would build up a legal case. A curious detail is that he has never dictated a line during his life, but, in a small, clear handwriting, writes all his letters, telegrams, speeches, articles and even his defense speeches at the bar.

PART WITH LIFTED HATS

I said to him: "Mr. President, do you know what you are being accused of? They accuse you of wanting to revive secret diplomacy."

Poincare, who seldom laughs, laughed a good deal at this. He said: "No. I have no intention of reviving secret diplomacy, but neither do I intend to permit to live and grow what I call 'diplomacy of the movies.' We have just seen that diplomacy at work the last two years in Europe. Prime ministers suddenly decide to meet; they determine approximately the object of their meeting or do not determine it at all; they jump into a train or automobile and off they go to London, Paris, Boulogne, Hythe, Spa, San Remo, Brussels or Cannes.

"They are followed by a small army of experts, preceded by a large army of photographers. They are engulfed in the Palace Hotel and for three or four days confer between luncheon and tea, time. Sensational speeches are made. They fail to agree. Experts are requested to give immediate replies to improvised questions. When they do not reply promptly enough they are reprimanded and their reports are not wanted.

"At the end of three days one notices that nothing has been resolved. Then the prime ministers become nervous, as it is understood that they must leave on the fourth day. They try to word a resolution which will be likely to satisfy everybody—above all, public opinion. Vague formulae are used in which the imprecise words scarcely veil the persisting misunderstandings. This resolution is signed hastily on the steps of a train waiting at the station or on the footstep of an automobile waiting in a courtyard. They then part amid a great lifting of hats and waving of handkerchiefs while the operators crank their cameras.

FINDS EXPERTS DURABLE

"This is what we have been seeing the last two years. It is praiseworthy agility on the part of the premiers, the endurance of the experts and the ingenuity of the photographers. But I am not aware of its having contributed to the favorable revival of the nations or having hastened the reconstruction of Europe. That kind of diplomacy cannot be mine."

"What method," I asked, "will then be yours?"

Poincare replied quickly: "The method which permits one to reflect and discuss realities and not words, and come to clear and precise solutions—the method in which America herself shows us an example.

"See what happened at Cannes. The suggestion was rapidly made one morning before luncheon to convoke a great international conference at Genoa for the purpose of discussing the economic reconstruction of Europe. The very same evening, before tea time, France declared that she accepted; Italy, too; Belgium, also. One country alone decided to take time to reflect—America.

"It has now been reflecting three weeks, consulting and weighing the good and bad of this proposition. America is right, and I can't praise it enough for so doing. But where America, which is not directly concerned, took three weeks to consider, could not France, which is directly concerned, take three or four days?

WRITING LESS THEATRICAL

"Written conversations are perhaps less theatrical than verbal talks in hotel or salon, but they are infinitely more profitable and useful. They allow every one to state his thoughts clearly, ask advice and reflect. In the last two years America has conversed in writing with Europe, and it is no worse for that. Besides, the place of a Prime Minister is not at a summer resort; it is in his cabinet, at the head of his government.

"During the two years of traveling here and there which we have just done the Treaty of Versailles has been going to pieces bit by bit. Each excursion is witnessed by the piece it left behind. Behind us we have an enormous heap of protocols, collective declarations, faded papers, torn letters and abolished clauses. But what have we in front of us? A mist of clouds and darkness."

Thus spoke Premier Poincare, who sat down again at his well lighted table to take up the documents which he proposes to discuss with Lloyd George, Hughes and Bonomi, far from the movie operators and without the accompaniment of tea and a tango orchestra.

Java Consolidated Meeting

Shareholders in the Java Consolidated Rubber and Coffee Estates, Ltd., held their twelfth annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the offices of the secretaries and general managers, Messrs. J. A. Wattie and Company, 10 Canton Road.

The Chairman spoke as follows: "Gentlemen.—This meeting was originally called for Thursday March 23 at 4 p.m., but as the funeral of our revered Consul-General, Sir Everard Fraser, whose tragic death we all deplore, was arranged for the same time, your Directors decided to postpone the meeting for one week, as an indication of the great respect in which he was held by the whole community.

"I feel sure that I need not apologise for this action since you will all approve and sympathise with the motive that prompted it.

"The report and accounts having been in your hands for some time, I will presume that I have your permission to follow the usual custom and take them as read.

"The report is made up in a slightly different form than heretofore for the reason that the adoption of alternate day tapping and the restriction of output that was exercised throughout the year, have made the usual tables of very little practical value for comparative purposes.

OUTPUT OF RUBBER LESS

"The output of rubber was 116,678 lbs. or 43.6 percent less than for 1920, but in spite of this smaller output, which naturally had the effect of increasing the cost per pound of all the overhead expenses, I am pleased to say that the cost of production was more than 1 penny per pound less than last year.

"Thinning out was continued during the year, but this work has now reached a stage when the trees can be carefully selected and only the worst yielding ones removed from the gardens.

"The most rigid economy is being exercised in every direction, but in spite of this the gardens are reported to be in first class condition, and not to have suffered in any way from the curtailment of expenditure.

"Your best thanks are due to the two managers and their staffs and to the Java agents for the very efficient manner in which they have administered the affairs of the Estates during a most trying and depressing period.

"Turning now to the accounts of the Dutch Company, you will see from the working account that this year Soember Mas has had to again incur heavy expenditure on new roads and bridges. I hope that this is the last of this expenditure, and that from now on we shall only have to bear a reasonable amount of annual upkeep.

"The profit transferred to profit and loss account is F. 65,065.47, which after providing F. 20,000 for income tax reserve, the usual agency fees, selling commission and interest for the Shanghai Company and writing off the difference in exchange is reduced to F. 406.37 which added to the sum brought forward from last year gives a total balance to the credit of profit and loss account of F. 11,958.98.

"Capital expenditure only amounted to F.3.220.28 for which sum two new sheeting machines and a small mangle were acquired for Soember Mas Estate.

POSITION SATISFACTORY

"As regards the Shanghai Company the profit for the year amounts to Taels 14,352.78, which added to the balance brought forward from last year, makes the total undivided profits Taels 42,590.65.

"The financial position of the Company is fairly satisfactory as on December 31 the combined accounts of the two companies showed a total surplus of liquid assets over cash liabilities of Taels 50,500.

"In view of the experience we have been through for the past 18 months, this is not yet a sufficient sum to ensure our being able to weather a similar storm in the future and your Board intend to endeavor to gradually build up our financial resources still further.

"That is all I have to say, gentlemen, but before formally proposing the adoption of the report and accounts, I shall be pleased to answer any questions you may wish to ask."

The following resolutions were then passed:

(1) That the Directors' report and statement of accounts as presented be passed.

That Mr. A. J. Welch be re-elected a Director of the Company.

That the appointment of Mr. A. P. Nazer as a Director of the Company be confirmed.

That Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews be elected Auditors to the Company for the ensuing year.

Anglo-Dutch Plantations, Ltd.

The twelfth annual general meeting of shareholders in the Anglo-Dutch (Java) Plantations, Limited, was held at the offices of the secretaries and general managers, Messrs. R. N. Trueman and Co., Yuenmow, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

In his annual address to the shareholders, the chairman said:

"The report and accounts having been in your hands for some days, I will with your permission take same as read.

"As you are all aware last year was the worst known in the rubber industry. The current year opened under brighter auspices but the relatively slight rise in the price brought out big offerings.

"Once again selling rates have fallen to the zone where it surely cannot pay many estates to continue production and we may shortly see a repetition of temporary shutting down, resting areas, etc., similar to last year.

"The plantation industry, strange as it may seem, has however benefited in some respects through adversity, for costs have been drastically cut, new cover plants and new methods of harvesting introduced and all concerned have been put on their mettle in a way that would never have happened had the easy days of prosperity continued.

"I was away on sick leave practically the whole of last year and on my return, I was amazed at the manner in which managers, estate staffs, and agents had abolished and swept away time honored methods in order to meet the new conditions of market, all this being done in the short space of one year. And to my mind, while we have adaptability of this nature there is no reason to despair of the future of this great industry. What is needed most at the moment is restriction, voluntary if possible, and if we cannot arrange and adhere to voluntary restriction when I should even welcome Government enforced restriction, for undoubtedly there is more rubber being produced than the world in its present unsettled state can consume.

"Shanghai companies, I am glad to say, played their part well in the scheme of voluntary restriction, for on comparing their 1920 and 1921 crops I found the latter showed a reduction of approximately 27 percent.

ECONOMY RULE ON ESTATES

"There is not very much to say regarding estate matters. The greatest economy has been exercised—this, we are told, not to the detriment of the estate, which is reported as being in excellent condition. The days of clean weeding in Java are apparently over and done with, our trees are ring weeded, this work being done by the tappers without extra pay, whilst the greater part of our area is under grass. On 315 acres we have introduced a cover plant called Mimosa Invisa which is said to overcome lallang, to prevent wash, and to act as a fertiliser in addition. What demerits this cover plant may develop remain to be seen. Meantime, however, planters in Java seem enthusiastic about it.

"The labor position was satisfactory and health gave us no anxiety.

"Restriction of output combined with alternate day tapping reduced what would otherwise have been a million pound crop to 760,000 lbs. the cost of which worked out at 7.49 pence per lb. F. O. B. compared with 9.14 pence in 1920, a most gratifying reduction, and at this figure, I think we may claim to rank amongst the cheapest producers. We hope to make a further reduction for this current year unless something unforeseen occurs to upset our estimates. Detailed figures of cost as hitherto submitted have been discontinued in the present report because restriction and alternate day tapping make such figures misleading as comparisons.

"The sale of the balance of 1920 crop realised a good margin over the figure it was valued at in the accounts, while of the 1921 crop we sold 602,883 lbs. at F. 0.39.69 per lb. against the previous year's price of F. 1.03.88 per lb. Bearing this enormous difference in mind, I am of opinion the result of the year's work is gratifying and could not have been attained without the keen co-operation of the manager, estate staff, and agents in their sustained efforts to keep down expenses. It is difficult, by the way, to give you the true sterling equivalent of the guilder price owing to fluctuations in exchange and because some of the crop was sold in London, some in Singapore, and most of it in Java.

BOTH COMPANIES LOSE

"Turning to the Dutch Company accounts, you will see that very little was spent on capital account, the main item being F. 5893 for a new motor installed in the Pengeloeran factory. All the assets have been written down to nominal figures.

"The working account shows a profit of F. 48,748.00 which is transferred to profit and loss account and after reserving F. 21,979.59 for income tax reserve, and charging interest, Shanghai agency fee and commission which are transfers to the Shanghai Company, the loss for the year amounts to F. 16,983.92, which deducted from the amount brought forward from 1920, leaves a sum of F. 56,995.25 at credit of profit and loss Account. This amount the Directors have carried forward to the new account.

"The Shanghai Company's accounts call for no comment except that adverse exchange caused a loss of Taels 15.948.35 which deducted from the amount brought forward from the previous year leaves a balance at credit of Profit and Loss account of Taels 28,-094.37 which the Directors recommend be carried forward.

"The surplus liquid assets of the two companies combined amount to close on Taels 71,000 which is sufficient to relieve us of any acute anxiety. An estate the size of Anglo-Dutch always needs a fair amount of working capital for use in emergencies. The lessons of the past two years indicate the imperative need of this and furthermore in addition to reasonable working capital, the time is coming when we shall have to accumulate reserves for replanting, because our present areas will not last for ever and will in course of time have to be cut out and replanted.

"You will notice from the Dutch Company's accounts that we hold F. 40,000 in reserve for income tax. Whether this amount will cover that item when presented, it is impossible to say, for such taxation is retrospective and complicated. What I do know is that taxation in the Netherlands Indies promises to be a heavy burden on companies operating there, and it is disturbing not to know the amount one may be called upon to pay.

"The past year was a trying one for all concerned and I am sure you will join with the Board in recording a vote of thanks to the estate manager, and staff, to the Company's agents in Java and to our secretaries and general managers in Shanghai for the excellent manner in which they have safeguarded our interests and helped the Company through a period of stress.

"At the moment the prospects of the current year are not very bright but the present depression cannot last for ever and I think this Company is sound enough to meet and overcome difficulties as they arise.

"I now propose the first resolution. That the Directors' Report and Statement of Accounts for the year ended December 31, 1921 as presented be passed." This was passed.

Tung Unable To Drop Portfolio

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, March 27.—Since the arrival of Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Mr. Tung Kang has made daily efforts to resign his post of Minister of Justice in favor of the returned delegate to the Washington Conference, but to date has been unable to persuade Dr. Wang to take office and has not had his resignation accepted by the president.

Dr. Wang is reported to have called upon Tung some days ago praising him for his activities in connection with the investigation of corruption in the Ministry of Finance and urging him to continue his work. From reports from Chinese circles it would appear that Tung Kang will retain the post of Minister of Justice until Dr. Wang can be persuaded to assume the position.

The investigation is still being carried on, the commission and the local procurate yesterday sending a joint note to the Ministry of Finance demanding a copy of all accounts during the tenure of Mr. Chang Hu's term of office.
